COMMO ORAL JUDGEMENT

#. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

#. Though learned counsel for the parties made manifold contentions in this matter but as the interim relief granted by this court continued till today, meaning thereby the petitioners are continuing on promoted post till day and these petitions are filed in the year 1985, 1986, the interest of justice will be served in case both these matters are disposed of with the direction to the respondents to consider the matters of petitioners with regard to their continuation on the post to which they were promoted with reference to this subsequent development. Interim relief shall continue till the matter is decided by the respondents and in case where the order goes adverse to the petitioners, interim relief shall continue for one more month. Liberty is granted to the petitioner for revival of the Special Civil Applications, in case of any difficulty. Rule stands disposed of accordingly with no order as to costs.
